With over 1300 square feet of space, this three bedroom period terraced house has plenty of room for the growing family. On the ground floor is a spacious through lounge (ideal for when friends and family come to visit), together with modern fitted kitchen, and a delightful and light filled sitting room overlooking the rear garden. Upstairs there are three generously proportioned bedrooms and the family bathroom, whilst the loft offers potential to extend further, if the need arises, and subject to the usual consents and permissions.
Standing at the southern end of Shernhall Street, the location of this house has much to recommend it. Venture northward along Shernhall Street and then turn left into the Ravenswood. Here you will find two (yes two!) breweries, complete with taprooms open to the public, as well as a gin palace serving mind blowing cocktails, and the neon wonderland that is God's Own Junkyard. Wander westward and Walthamstow Village is within easy walking distance, with its myriad of places to eat, drink and socialise, whatever the time of day. Alternatively, head east, where Wood Street is undergoing a rapid transformation, as well as offering quick and easy access into the City via the eponymous station. All in all, a great location, whichever direction you decide to head in...

Sitting opposite a 15th century timber-framed house, listening to the sound of bells ring in the nearby 12th century church, whilst the breeze gently blows through the trees behind you. Sounds idyllic doesn’t it? Sounds like a scene from the middle of the countryside, but it isn’t. This is the scene you will find when sat on the bench on Church Lane in Walthamstow. The timber-framed building in front of you is the Ancient House, the church bells belong to St Mary’s, and all around you is Walthamstow Village. Leave the bench behind, walk forwards, and you’ll soon find yourself on Orford Road. Take the weight off your feet and relax with a glass of wine at In Vino Veritas. Wander a bit further down the road and you’ll find Froth & Rind, our very own (and very amazing) cheese and beer shop. Pop in to the tapas bar or deli, have a meal and pint of pale in The Queens Arms, or chill in the garden of The Village pub. Quiet roads, beautiful cottages, pubs, restaurants, parks for the kids, and more character than you can shake a stick at. This is an urban Village with something for everyone.
